

We invite you to join us for special webinar sessions with Gregg Sotiropoulos, who will be sharing brilliant ideas that will surely tweak your students' interest and participation, making your online lessons memorable.

- 1) Jollification! Time to have fun with games and activities for your online classrooms.
- 2) Why do we teach the way we do?
- 3) Practical guidelines to help make the shift from face-to-face teaching to online teaching

JOLLIFICATION! TIME TO HAVE FUN WITH GAMES AND ACTIVITIES FOR YOUR ONLINE CLASSROOMS.

with Gregg Sotiropoulos

What will you get from this session?

Truth be told, teaching online can sometimes be a tedious task - especially when our students are disengaged and the flow of the lesson is broken. What can we do at that moment to re-engage our students? Together, let us take a look at some ideas that will surely tweak your students' interest and participation, making your online lesson memorable!

Join our webinar session (19 May 2020, 15.00-16.00)

Register now!

WHY DO WE TEACH THE WAY WE DO?

with Gregg Sotiropoulos

What will you get from this session?

Throughout our careers, we, as educators, face many challenges of various natures on a daily basis. Now more than ever before, many of us feel overwhelmed or unprepared to cope with these challenges. Why is this the case? Together, we will explore various questions that will help us create a “personal framework of reference” to guide us and enable us to face our daily challenges with confidence.

Join our webinar session (21 May 2020, 15.00-16.00)

Register now!

PRACTICAL TIPS TO ENGAGE OUR YOUNG LEARNERS

with Gregg Sotiropoulos

What will you get from this session?

Our students are curious, inquisitive, creative and the list goes on! But now, during this challenging time, engaging our students should be our number one priority! So join me in sharing some tips on engaging our students, as they need us now more than ever before.

Join our webinar session (22 May 2020, 15.00-16.00)

Register now!

LEARN MORE ABOUT THE SPEAKER

Gregg Sotiropoulos (New York, USA)

Beginning his career in education in 1996 as an elementary school teacher in New York, Gregg continues to this day to motivate, inspire and consult both teachers and students worldwide. He holds a double bachelor's degree in Education and Art and a Master's Degree in Business Administration. Gregg has participated in numerous conferences concentrating on CPD, Coaching, Leadership, Motivation and Training. He has extensive experience in teaching English as a foreign language at all levels and is currently working for MM Publications as an ELT consultant and teacher trainer.